VOLUME XI.

CANTON, MISSISSIPPI, SEPTEMBER 25, 1875.

WEARINESS.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW,

b. Bittle feet, that such long years Must wander on through hopes and fears; Must achie and bleed betwellt year load; I, meaver to the wayside fra, Where toil shall cease and ress begin, Am weary, thinking of your road.

Have still so long to give or ask;

I, who so much with book and pen
Have toiled among my fellow-mon,
Am weary, thinking of your task.

O. Hitle hearts, that throb and best With much impation, feverish heat, such invites and strong desires; Mine, that so long has glowed and burned, With passions into ashes turned. Now covers and conceals its fires.

BARCAROLLE. BY EDGAR PAWCETT.

The lake lies with the sheen on it

With strange, half-proud humility, With sumptuous tranquillity, Then art lounging sweet, at my flattered feet, statuesque immobility; Against thy becom's chaste superb repose. One Levy, blood-red, relyst-petalled rose

Thine affluent bair so billow-like,

Look how the pines 'com towerwise'; Skirring the late edge bowerwise; The stars walt still, ore they flock to fill the heav-enly re-edoes flowerwise; But Heave in the darkening west hums now, Like some grand diamond on some swart queen's

Ab, Love! with the rich day falling so, With the summer sunset paling so, I would always rest on the Instrons breast of take, forever sailing so,
And (eel, at languarous rapturg's utmost goal,
Peace lightly away the intestrings of my soul!

Feetless, if skies be thunderfull, Hestless if time be planderfull; An I only sure of the splender pure in those fathon less eyes, and wonderful. My soil would sour beyond all time, as some The upleaping lark through dawn's white corridor

OUR FAITHFUL IRISH GIRL.

BY MRS. E. V. BLAKE.

That was our Kathleen O'Morrill. She was a "real jewel," as housekeepers have it; steady, efficient, an excellent cook, a wit as only a genuine Hibernian can be. Handsome, too; no lily-fingered, taperwaisted maid, but a round, buxom, rosy, jolly lass, with arms of good size and g sod proportion, a waist of ample girth. height five feet ten, and good, sound, hearty Irish strength in every joint and

We had had her a year and a half, and Mike Rusher, our gardener, four months when the hot summer days burst upon us out of the warm May sunshine, and woke in our hearts the annual vision of tempting salt waves and cool rocky caverns at Leye Beach. I think they started with less than the usual preparation that year: at any rate, I forget now the incident that sent them off so suddenly at the last. I mean father, mother, John and little Ada. sidered not essential to my summe "make-up" at Leye Beach, and I remained to be sure she accomplished them by a given time. There were, then, only my-self, Kathleen and Mike Rusher in the rambling, pleasant house in the suburbs, caring little for outside show, but rather taking rambling trips all over the country, whenever the fit took us, into what-best. And, for my, part, I much prefer money spent in this way. But in our quiet, unpretending home were quantities of old family jewels and heavy family plate, and the heavy family heavy family plate; and the huge dining-room safe held besides, at certain times, out at my urgent entreaty father removed ough. "It's bad enough, father, to have all that plate, without two or three thousand dollars to tempt burglars," said I, " and I here alone with Kathleen."

Cowardly, Agnes?" said my father, ghing. "You forgot Mike." Yes, and what mortal use could Mike be to me, in the event of a burglar breaking in? When he's a mile off in the upper story, and sleeps sounder than the Seven Sleepers."

"Well, have him down in the little corner room, then, and take Kathleen in the next chamber. Or shall I send you a special policeman ?"

special policeman?"

"I wish you would. Mr. Staggs, for instance. Do have him patrol round the house every night. He's smart and quick, and he'll be a real comfort. Do father."

"Well, upon my word!" said father, laughing again; "to think my brave Agues should improved a will appear to the same of the sam Agnes should turn such a coward. Wh child, it's thickly settled all around, ar any cry would wake up somebody, stay myself if you're so timid."

Mr. Staggs."
"Well, anyway, I'll come back Satur

Monday; and Wednesday you can go down with me. I suppose your dresses will be ready by then.

They went. But Mr. Staggs did not

The first night passed off easily enough.

Mike slept down-stairs, and Kathleen in the room next to mine.

The second night I functed a quee taste in my chocolate at supper, and I told Kathleen to turn it out and buy some new next day. And I took a long draught told her, and dropped her eyes slowly upon the cup. I remembered it afterward, but it passed with no thought at the time. • When I went to bed I lay for a long time restless, then sank away to sleep—or partly. I think it was near twelve o clock when a hand on my mouth and a whisper at my car aroused me.

"Hush, miss, dear! not a word—not a

"Oh, Kathleen! is it you? What's the time he was the room markers. An it is near the time, suce—barrin's quarter is a hour."

I can truly say I never before came downly sold from head to foot. When hanger comes in the daytime we have the comfort of light and the use of our eyes, but in the ribut, when every nook and time he was attorney general of the cally of no foot was attorney general of the cally of no foot was attorney general of the cally of no foot was attorney general of the cally of no foot was constant. The London Lancet says: "Anosymes, assenties, cough mixture and having their admission money refunded, I remember."

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, who is said to have declared that Sharp was "the oldest man of his great expitement; many insisting of leaving the theatre and having their admission money refunded. I remember."

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMEDY FOR C. CALHOUN, the first sheking of the fluid.

EMMED TO SH broad awake in so quick a time. I turned slowly cold from head to foot. When danger comes in the daytime we have the comfort of jicht and the use of our eyes; but in the stant, when every nook and

"Jist yer dark wrapper over yer night-gown, miss, dear! Where is it?" said she, snatching it from the chair that I indicated and thrusting in movement. "Your sheet and the state of the slave help of "the diested and thrusting in movement." dicated and thrusting in my arms. "Now good old times."

This house is white clothes; an' now some slippers in yer hand, miss; no, not on yer feet yit. Hark, now!" We listened; the door was ajar. Kathleen, not a moment idle, thrust a pillow into my place and arranged the bed-clothes to stimulate a human form in the dim light. All this took place in the dim light. All this took place in about three minutes. No sound from the hall. Kathleen seized my arm.

"Miss, dear, I'm goin to thry to get of perlice there; it's quite a ways, but I'll go like v deer. I could go quicker'n you, but if ye'd rather ye can thry it. But say, quick. You must stay by the library windy to see that we git in all

"I'll stay," said I, promptly. But oh! wkat a sinking of the heart! To be left alone at midnight in a house tenanted by burglars, where my life would pay the forfait of discount. forfeit of discovery.
"Come down quick, thin," said Kathleen; "if we'll only git down before Mike comes along, an' he'll not be far off started. The padded stairs and Axminster carpets gave no sound of our bare feet. But oh! the dread of meeting Mike Rusher in the dark! for he was probably then patrolling the house. We got as far as the big closet under the stairs, in the lower hall, when we heard the softy along the room to the open sitting-wit as only a genuine Hibernian can be carefully closing the door of communica-tion after us. The window-sash slid easily, and Kathleen perched an instant on the sill while she whispered; "Keep dark, now, miss, dear, an' if they're like to find Then she dropped to the ground in spite of herself, making a rustling in the lilaes slipped across the walk on to the soft grass in the shrubbery, and was gone. Not a moment too soon, As I crouched close to the sill, behind a big lounging-chair, I heard a second rustle of the lilacs, and a low remark.

"I heard 'em crackle, anyway. But there's nobody here."

There were two of them. If they had be w glanced at the window, which I had par-tially closed lest it should attract atten-tion, I should have been lost. But they went away, and I closed it entirely.

Then, as my eyes became more accus-tomed to the dark. I saw rather than heard the library door open; heard Mike Rusher's smothered whisper; "What yer bout, Rufe? Nothin' but books in thar."

"Yer sure? No nice clo's, nor secret frawer, nor nothin'?" was the answer in ne safe. Come 'er long; ye c'n go up-airs ef ye wanter, arterwards. Valy'ble

They left the door open and retired, I eard the clink of silver, and caught the deam of light from the dinning-room. hey had got the safe open. How many minutes then went by I cannot tell All at once, with scarce a footfall to tell of his proximity, Mike Rusher stood almost

The divil!" said he, "But maybe miss left it onfastened. She's mighty careless. An' ye heard the bushes rattle?' The cold perspiration stood all over me and I held my breath.

Just then an outburst of profanity from the hall, with a sudden confusion, and his own name uttered in uncomplimentary terms caused the redoubtable Mike and terms, caused the regoundance Mike and his companion to depart for the scene of conflict with some alacrity. I could tear it no longer. I raised the window, all in a tremor, to leap from it and take to my heels, when lo! a sudden crowd of figures darkened it, a man sprung rapidly through—another and another—the room as filled with them; they carried clubs and revolvers, and there was a gleam of stars and gilt buttons. One of them aight sight of me as I shrunk half faint He held me up, for I could hardly stand.

ree in number—were captured. After the sharp skirmish was over, the captives hand-cuffed and placed hors de-combat, and the wounds bound up, Mike-Rusher for the first time caught sight of dhrink the coffee wid me own eyes, an' looked at ye slapin' in yer bed not five minutes ago!"

"Thate of a gur-r-l yersilf, Mike Rush-" quoth Kathleen, facing him with us akimbo. "I did all that, an' I didn't hrink yer coffee, but poured it down me ouzzum, an' it's wet as a drownded rat I vas, sure, an' ye looked at me piller wid he night-cap on in me bed, bad Inck to ye! Take a woman after this to desire a woman, will ye? an' none uv yer blundrin' Irishmen!" With which fiat on the woman question our Kathleen retired on her laurels.—

Woonsocket (R. I.) Patriot.

THE BEAUCHAMP TRAGEDY.

Cincinnati Commercial.

Wandering among the graves in the corner is black, and familiar objects take state. At the time of his death he had erease the debility and hasten the fatal strange shapes and shadows, and there is a grim silence over the house, that may be broken at any time by stealthy steps or pistol shaps, and you lie in your bed and feel danger drawing steadily nearer—nearer—ugh! I won't think of it. I feel that same chill now as I write.

State. At the time of his death he had crease the debility and hasten the fatal end. The best method of casing a cough lawyer, but final recently been again to resist it with all the force of will possible, until the accumulation of phlegm becomes greater, then there is smething to cough against, and it comes the debility and hasten the fatal end. The best method of casing a cough lawyer, but final recently been again to resist it with all the force of will possible, until the accumulation of phlegm becomes greater, then there is smething to cough against, and it comes the debility and hasten the fatal end. The best method of casing a cough lawyer, but final recently been again to resist it with all the force of will be recently been again. Feel that same chill now as I write.

"What'll we do, miss? For it's a tearing shame, an' they'll git all the nire silver an' things, an' that wretch uv a close. With Pusher! We'll have the state and that the session of the habit, as is shown by the frequency worms. I smit not attempt to sketch a history, the coughing. A great deal of hacking and coughing in invalids is state, and the frequency of the last circus.

"Your cognor will be purely nervous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency worms."

"Your cognor will be purely nervous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency will be purely nervous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency."

"Your cognor will be purely nervous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency." thafe, Mike Rusher! We'll have to be spry!"

The thought of making a defense of her master's property—the brave girl! How she put me to shame, lying shivering there only small and its consequences. I have bearned the relief purely nervous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency when thinking about it, and the comparative rarity when the preson is so much "An about it, and the attention is compelled on the last "You have been a substantial to the session of the legislature was to begin on the day followed. The story of his death, with its cause about it, and the attention is compelled on the last "You have been a substantial to the session of the last "You have been about it, and the attention is compelled on the last "You have been a substantial to the session of the last "You have to be legislature was to begin on the day followed. The story of his death, with its cause about it, and the attention is compelled on the last "You have the previous, or from the force of the last "You have the previous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency when thinking about it, and the comparative rarity when the previous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency when thinking about it, and the comparative rarity when the previous, or from the force of habit, as is shown by the frequency when thinking about it, and the comparative rarity when the previous are previous. The legislature was to begin on the day followed. The story of his death, with its cause about it, and the attention is compelled to the previous and the comparative rarity when the previous about it, and the attention is compelled to the previous and the story of the legislature was to begin on the day followed. The story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the story of his death, with its cause and the there, only considering how I might get safely out of the house to the nearest neighbor's. With a desperate resolution I sat up.

The story of his death, with its cause about it, and the after the safely out of the house to the nearest neighbor's. With a desperate resolution I sat up.

The story of his death, with its cause about it, and the after the safely out of the common section of the story of his death, with its cause about it, and the after the safely out of the house to the nearest from soveral cotemporary personal sources. But first let me say, fronting the capitol square in Frankfort, on its section of the story of his death, with its cause about it, and the after the safely out of the house to the nearest section. sat up.
"On with some clothes," I said to Kath-ward from the Frankfort and Louisville script upon white wooden tablets were ent. He met her at a party, I believe, and it was under the excitement of the dance and the wine perhaps, that Miss Cook yielded herself to him. After her disgrace became known she had seeluded herself at home, but it seems that a young lawyer named Jeroboam O. Beauchamp, also of respectable family, happened to see her and, falling in love with her, succeeded in obtaining her promise to become his wife on condition exacted by her he should kill Colone! Sharp.

got as far as the big cases, got as the big cases, got as far as the big cases, got as the big cases, g Instinctively we knew what he was open-into the door for. Kathleen's fingers clutched my wrist—there was a black and tered Frankfort, and, finding the hotels squares south of Sharp's residence. Late at night he went around to the house in which Sharp resided—the large, old brick which I have mentioned—and, go-ing to a side door (though others say it was to the front door), he knocked. Sharp was awakened, and asked who was there. Beauchamp answered by giving the name of one familiar to Sharp—in another residence. another part of the state, where the latter formerly lived-but changing the second initial of this person's name, saying "John A. Covington," and requesting to see him at once on important business.

"I know John W. Covington," said sharp, deliberately opening the door and advancing into the open air and dark-him with his left hand and

STARBED HIM TO THE HEART

with the right. Col. Sharp was found was found the Public Intelligencer, and survived until the London Gazette was transin the morning, without being suspected ing his home he conveyed to his wife the

The death of Col. Sharp produced a profound sensation in Frankfort and throughout the state. The legislature offered $3,900 for the detection and aporehension of the nurderer. There was a disposition to make political capital ught to trial, and SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.

The Earliest Modern Newspapers. It seems that to Italy the world is indebted for the origin of the newspaper. Centuries before the Christian era, or, to give the precise date according to the best authorities, 691 B. C., a daily jour-nal called the Acta Diurna was published at Rome. It was not in the form of the printed paper sheet that is nowadays left at every intelligent man's door in the early morning; nor was it issued in ious editions and circulated amon subscribers for a stipulated consider ation. The Acta Diurna was a public She was a young lady of good family, of fair cultivation, with some literary tal-ent. He not have the rest of the control of

to become his wife on condition exacted by her he should kill Colonel Sharp. This promise was made—the marriage took place. Some time—a year or two perhaps—passed, and Sharp still remained alive. Perhaps the trouble would have passed and been forgotten, had not the sesinction been mentioned as against Sharp's character during the warm political campaign in which he war political campaign in which he was elected to the legislature. On this charge being brought against him, Col. Sharp treated it slightly and stated in public, it is said, that a certificate was in evidence that this child born of Miss Cook a newspaper still in existence, we believe, was edited by Renaudot, a physician in Paris. It appeared as a weekly, the initial number being issued in April, 1631. It was patronized by the king, Louis XIII., and contained at least one article penned by the royal hand. It also enjoyed the support of Cardinal Richelieu The British museum preserves some copies of a newspaper called the English Mercurie, and professing to have been printed under the authority of Queen Elizabeth in 1588. The title of one of the numbers reads thus: "The English Mercurie, published by authoritie, for the prevention of false reports, inprinted by Christopher Barlur, her highness's printer, No. 50." In it is an account of the Spanish Armada, under the heading:

"A journall of what passed since the 21st of this month, between her majes-tie's fleet and that of Spayne, transmit-ted by the Lord Highe Admiral to the Lordes of Council." But the papers were not published at the date and in the circumstances pretended. They have been proved to be elever forgeries executed about 1766. In 1622 during the sir! I want to see Thomas, sir!! I want to see Thomas, reasoned, be ted about 1766. In 1622, during the ess.

Beauchamp at once lifted a mask which reign of James L, a paper appeared under the title of the London Weekly Cour-The wore, saying:

"Don't you know me, colonel?"

"My God'it's B—," exclaimed Sharp, but did not succeed in pronouncing his enemy's name before the latter struck him with his left hand and

"My God'it's B—," exclaimed Sharp, but did not succeed in pronouncing his enemy's name before the latter struck him with his left hand and

"Well, lock arounce him it will be all right war, a variety of publications claiming unworthily the office and the name of newspaper were produced, but, in fact, the first genuine news journal published in Factorial."

"Oh'! Lance of the latter struck him with his left hand and dead on his doorstep. Beauchamp re-turned to his lodging and left town early runry, 1866. in the United States was the Boston News-Letter, which appeared April 24, intelligence of the deed accomplished by waving his handkerchief aloft in the disprising printer in Boston had undertaken to start a new paper, but the first edition was suppressed by the authorities, and

If the southern flower gardener desires out of the affair, too, I am told, and to a good show of bloom next spring, he make believe the assassination to have been in the interest of the anti-relief the next, according to the state of the party. One of the Frankfort editors of the time was darkly charged with accessory knowledge—and some were not in-disposed, I believe, to have him arrested. spring. Most of the perennials and bien-It was through this editor, I have been nials, as well as some of the annuals, are told—I think the name was Darby—that of this class. A few of the most desir-Beauchamp was finally pointed out and able are snapdragon, (Antierinum,) Columbine, (Aquiligia,) Sweet Alyssum, ing an indisposition to touch him and thus make hopelessly public the cause of his act. But Beauchamp was finally mum, Pink, Mourning Bride, (Scabiosa,) Stock, Holyhock, Sweet Pea, Mignonette (in pots for winter blooming,) Gaillardi During the interval between the sentence and its execution, great efforts prepared soil, Calceolaria, Cheraria, were made in his behalf, delegations of Mimulus, and Chinese Primrose, for winladies dressed in mourning even going to ter blooming house plants. The seed the governor, and a son of the governor, Isaac B. Desha, was imprisoned at the time, convicted of a highway robbery near Maysville. It was presumed young Desha would be pardoned—as he afterward was—and it was urged that the governor might do a gracious thing, posed of river sand. When prepared lightening the selfish act of elemency by thus, it should be watered with a fine her arms around me. Thrice came a sudden shrill whistle, and from all sides the policemen rushed to the attack. There was no retreat—the house was surrounded by alert detectives. All of the gaug—three in number—were captured.

The day of execution came. A short time before the house was surrounded by alert detectives. All of the gaug—three in number—were captured. agratified.

The day of execution came. A short time before the hour designated, request was made by Beauchamp that his wife have made sufficient growth—say an inch over in the road by the boss elephant of Shoseph," replied the prisoner.

HIS HONOR AND BIJAH.

"And you work at—?"
"On a Sherman baper," was the reply. "Ah! yes. You are one of those af-ternoon journalists who take items from and nervous step, and as soon as he could secure a view of his honor's good na-tured face he feelingly remarked:

'I protest—I solemnly protest!'
' Don't take on that way, Mr. Gibson,' othingly replied the court.

Deed, sir, but I can't tell!" "Or Thomas Jones, Brown, Perkins, De Laney, St. Clair or Wither-Well, your Thomas is far, far away, seems, and now let's proceed to ask and answer other questions. Let me inyour mind that you were intoxicated

And Thomas, oh! where is he?"

'That's what I dunno."
'Well, I can't keep this case open ing around. I do not know called as she faced the audience.

"He answereth not, Mrs. Bliss, your neighbor, and threw slops at her?" "Oh! sir, if Thomas was only here!"
"I wish he was—I'd send him up with you. I make your sentence sixty days, and if you ever find Thomas please send is photograph."

ah adjourned the court, tenderly If he was any sort of feller He'd come and solace she.

The Traffic in Italian Children.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times, speaking of the abominable traffic in Italian children, says: Attention has often been drawn in the the cow.

6. Keen the animal in set when done all in Paris or other large cities, and their the short after the conductors after delivering up their harmonic thoroughly, and we a piece of poetry the conductors after delivering up their harmonic thoroughly, and we a piece of poetry the conductors after delivering up their harmonic thoroughly, and we a piece of poetry the conductors after delivering up their harmonic thoroughly, and we a piece of poetry the conductors after delivering up their harmonic thoroughly, and we are present the conductors after delivering up their harmonic transfer delive

An Hour at the Detreit Central Station
From the Detreit Central Station
Bijah skulked into the corridor and returned with a melancholy man, whose shirt-collar hung by the last button, and who had evidently been rolled over and corrections of the money the reality to experiment to the Basilism committee to memory, so that they may be really to exprivate the first disquised girls, into lodgings near the Place Mangrillon and the Pautheon. When they are out begging their masters often follow them to watch their receipts, but most generally the eldest child takes possessing the money the reality to emptivate the first disquised grand duke that wanders unawares into their school-room.

JEFFERSON DAVIS. sion of the money, the padrone preferring to spend his time in low tayers. Your cognomen is - ?" inquired his The smallest children are considered the best workers, and are most in demand, because they excite most compassion from the public. Begging lasts from morning till night, the children obtaining their food from the charity of others the morning papers, change a name or two, and gobble them as original?"

"I dranslates," replied the prisoner, late into the night to avoid ill treatment. in solemn tones.

Some of them are sent into the subarres, more especially on fete days in the summer compactly and they are well mer. They wait outside the stations for "I understand. I've seen your translations frequently, and they are well done. Anybody who hadn't read the other papers would think you had a hundred tons of brain under your hat."

"I gan't help dot if I didn't want to."

"Well, I'm only giving you my individual opinion. If I were you I'd write my own items or sit on a box and whittle bar soap. It's a fact that you were drunk lest night, and what have you to say about it?"

The prisoner wined his nose in an archive the bar soap. It's a fact that you were say about it?"

The prisoner wined his nose in an archive the bar soap. It's a fact that you were the trans, singing a barbarous mixture of patriotic and obscene songs. When one of them is arrested he is provisionally detained, and notice is given to the Italian consul. The padrone, however, generally arrives first, asserts his claim, and the child is nearly always given up to him. A Neapolitan physician states that of one hundred children of both sexes who leave their country only twenty return, thirty establish thenselves abroad.

you saw, the threads of cotton as regular as fish-netting, and as straight as an "only "Sir! I want justice! said the pris-er; "I demand justice!" said the pris-that in. Our informant says, however, in the present condition of the country that her Joe heard Clint Hamilton say more currency is needed.

"That's a different thing, Mr. Gibson, and I'm happy to say that I can accommodate you. I find you guilty, and I sentence you to the house of correction We know another worthy and well-meaning young woman in New York. We know another worthy and well- to all his hearers. meaning young woman in New York, whose limited salary as private tutor has for several years supported a chivalrous old soldier of the last two wars, whom soft, sad sunlight which streamed into the last one left impoverished and unpensee him it will be all right."

"Oh! sir, he isn't here, sir," she said, after glancing around.

"People whose resources are small frequently make the mistake of supposing that what is of immediate and market-intrigues for their restoration.

the beautiful of the useful there is no room to institute a comparison.

In some people economy takes the form of investment for income, These are the support of the mock-auction shop and the second-hand-book-store. Mrs. Toodles, with her door-plate, has a congener in the seedy young bibliophile who thinks he has found a bargain in the "annual revort of the deaf and dumb insane assign from the French language the words." report of the deaf and dumb insane asy- ing from the French language the word place. He may be a wild Arab, a howling Turk, a bearded Russian or an American with his hair parted in the centre for aught I know. We must dispose of this or, rebind and patch, and clean it an expense greatly disproportionate to its worth. This is only another and a of vengeance and bitterness. A great longer road to prodigality.

After all, the principle of economy is not so much self-sacrifice as discretion, and a little bit of good sense will often hoped that the Prince will act up to his

Capturing a Prince.

Once upon a time a little Egyptian girl attended a missionary school on the Isthmus of Suez. This little girl always learned her lessons well, and on exhibition days was always pointed out as the One day an Indian prince came that way. He was returning to his native land with the corpse of his mother, who had died in England, where her son had been spending his youth acquiring a knowledge of English life, literature, and customs. His name was Maharajah Du-Attention has often been drawn in the leep Singh, and he was very, very rich. Times to the lamentable practice of beging exercised by children trained in the trade. This question has been re-opened by a circular addressed by the "Societe ladies of the court who would have contest, and the wounds bound up, Mike Rusher for the first time caught sight of Kathleen and me.

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a gur-rl thin! was it you as wint traisage."

"Houly mither o' Moses! ye thafe up a circular addressed by the "Societe bur a five in trail. This question has been re-opened by a circular addressed by the "Societe bur a five in the form of the great was five a five in the word that there were nany of the great before; and they must afterwards be several times re-potted, as their growth may require more room.—Rural Carabana was at hand, the officers entered the word that there were nany of the great several times re-potted, as their growth is several times re-potted. After a while a gur-rl thin! Was it you are up a five in the form of the growth was granted. After a while a gur-rl thin! Was circular addressed by the "Societe word and the several times re-Five per cent., and, perhaps, ten, can be added to the amount of milk obtained from the execution had come. Beauchamp was taken in his dying condition out upon the execution had come. Beauchamp was taken in his dying condition out upon the execution had come. Beauchamp was taken in his dying condition out upon the seaffold and leng. The besites of the bushand and wife were removed to their home and buried together. Subsequently this tragic romasce of real life was made the basis of an novy which was arguly bought up, it is said which was grighly bought up, it is said which was grighly bought up, it is said which was grighly searce and the analysis of the pasture.

They had convince every one that the suppression of the suppression of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and the suppression of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and begging, and thence come of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and the suppression of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and the suppression of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and the suppression of this social pest would be a really philathropic work in southern Italy. In a naturally very rich province of the Barbonia and the suppression of the suppression of the sortion of the isolation of the inhabition of the inhabition of the inhabition of the sortion of the inhabition and die together. But as the time for the execution had ome Beauchamp was town in his dying condition out upon the estimated and bright conditions and the bright of the b

Casemant Commercial.

"Let me into the bed wild ye, miss, dear, for the lower of Hirven, and Till tell the part of the Chemical Commercial found a dark, pray monument bearing the mane of Sodomen P. Sharp. The inscription of the Chemical Commercial found a dark, pray monument bearing the mane of Sodomen P. Sharp. The inscription that dathed as the part of the Chemical Commercial found a dark, pray monument bearing the mane of Sodomen P. Sharp. The inscription of Sodomen P. Sharp. The insc

NUMBER 12.

Mr. Davis was well received, but no notable demonstration was made on the occasion. He opened his speech by expressing much pleasure in meeting the people of 2 section of country with which he was well acquainted many years ago, and felt rejoiced at its growth the property of the people of the p

He then spoke at considerable length direct railway route;" and the whole so smoothly done that you hardly know which is the original and which the darn. Indeed, her joyal neighbor who lives just ley, and its great advantages and importwhich is the original and which the darm, soothingly replied the court.

"I will, sir—I will take on! I protest, sir."

"Do you protest a draft, Mr. Gibson, sir; I protest against the outrage."

"No, sir; I protest against the outrage."

"Didn't you have sheets on your bed, Mr. Gibson, and didn't they give you milk toast for breakfast."

"I tell you I protest?" exclaimed the prissoner.

"Well, I would, too, if I'd been found drunk with my body jammed in between a sugar hogshead and a barrel of kerosene. There's lots of law in this country. Mr. Gibson, but there's no law to prevent you protesting from this time until Christmas."

"Sir! I want justice! said the prissoner.

"Sir! I want justice! said the prissoner."

"I tell you protest a draft, Mr. Gibson, but there's no law to prevent you protesting from the indeed, her joyial neighbor who live splust targets and minor the darm. I levy, and its great advantages and importances and importances the alley says those darms never wear out. She says that Mrs, Hamilton's family tacks singly in the best half says that Mrs, Hamilton's family in the best balbrigans or British lose, in prevent you protesting from this time until Christmas."

"Sir! I want justice! said the prismore currency is needed.

The speech was frequently applanded

ned at least to give satisfaction

Napoleonic Intrigues in France. overished and unpen-It was her custom their castle of Arenenberg, where they soft, sad sunlight which streamed into the court-room.

WANTED THOMAS.
She was a little bit of a women with a big straw hat on, and she suddenly squeaked out:
"Oh! sir! I want to see Thomas, sir!"
Well, lock around you, and if you see him it will be all right."

The last one left impoverished and unpensioned in Alabama. It was her custom—heaven knows she thought it her duty—to walk up to her work, twenty blocks, through the slush and snow of last winter, in order to save the fares by the sir! I want to see Thomas, sir!"

Well, lock around you, and if you see him it will be all right."

The same and she suddenly streamed into the custom —heaven knows she thought it her duty—to know of a place at which their sitters to know of a place at which their sitters could be becomingly got up. It is melaculated in pictures, and which will be an eye-sore to future generations. The walls of the Royal Academy are every year hung with portraits which was capital.

People whose resources are small frequently make the mistake of supposing of the court points. The party to know of a place at which their sitters to know of a place at which their sitters to know of a place at which their sitters could be becomingly got up. It is melaculated in pictures, and which will be an eye-sore to future generations. The walls of the Royal Academy are every year hung with portraits which was capital.

People whose resources are small frequently make the mistake of supposing of the subject by a distinct of the receiving a small and select party at their castle of Arenenberg, where they are passing the holidays. The party could be becomingly got up. It is melaculated in pictures, and which will be an eye sore to future generations.

The walls of Arenenberg which is their castle of Arenenberg, where they are passing the holidays. The party could be becomingly got up. It is not should be could be becomingly got up. It is not should be seen called to the subject by a distinct of the cultive could be becomingly on the latter. It is now pretty gener "Oh! I dunno!"

People whose resources are small frequently make the mistake of supposing that what is of immediate and marketable value is of more importance than able value is of more importance than health or education, and they begin a
"Oh! I dunno!"

People whose resources are small frequently make the mistake of supposing that what is of immediate and marketable value is of more importance than health or education, and they begin a course of economy by cutting away their forty newspapers in France and other if policy for the restoration. They have maintaining, wholly or in part, about is made in the height of the reigning fashion. They have since spent a own, and that they have since spent a own, and they have since spent course of economy by cutting away their pleasures; money spent in recreation comes to be regarded as a dead waste.

While a Thomas concert or a day up the Hudson would let in enough music or sunshine to drive away the whimseys and the doctor for a month to come, this following way of escape from the grindstone and pill box. The first necessity of a business man is diversion; and, so long as it does not become laborious, the more absorbing his diversion, the better. Between the utility of the beautiful and the leautiful of the useful there is no room to institute a comparison.

Marrican authorities are peculiarly sensitive in all matters connected with the start have their postribustaten, if they are not very 'thin-skinned' when they are not very 'thin-skinned' when they are not very 'thin-skinned' when they are some recognized rules about dress were some recognized rules about dress were some recognized rules about dress when a mode that they do not only possible, but probable, that they would be followed, to the great relief of people of taste, and to the comfort of people who say they it does not become laborious, the more absorbing his diversion; and, so long as it does not become laborious, the more of taking M. Paul's life. A few of the leautiful of the useful there is no room to institute a comparison.

In some read of a sunth forty newspapers in France and other lately forms have lately appears, wonder they are now trying to do whatsoever is to be done by condescension instead of hard cash. M. Sand they are now were some recognized rules about dress. Such frights of themselves. If there were some recognized rules about dress when they are not very 'thin-skinned' when they are now were some recognized rules about dress. Such frights of themselves, If there were some recognized rules about about them, when another style appears, wonder they could ever have made them, when another style appears, wonder they could ever have m as. I do not know this of the Christian missions among the bareork a barel 1 m. I may be a wild Arab, a howlork a barel 1 m.

principles should be ever have a chance of doing so.

John Bright's Sareasms. John Bright has long been regarded as almost unrivaled. When provoked be the taunts of opposition to use this weap on, which he does but seldom, his retorts are overwhelming. Quite recently be replied to some of the tory party, who had been finding fault with measures of Mr. Gladstone. He said: "These gen-tlemen must find fault; it is their nature; if they had been in the wilderness the would have complained of the Ten Com-mandments as a harrassing piece of leg bunches large and very compact, vine vigorous and free from disease. We may displayed in the construction. Although no practicable result in open air may be hoped for, it is a wanderful piece of clockwork. In connection with this thousand and four thousand men employed are between three thousands and four thousand men employed. the eyes be profound and temples gray, old age is to be concluded. Wounds about the temples suggest attacks of suggests, and when the end of the nose presents circular sears, it may be concluded that the horse has been twitched with a cord to insure his quictness while is large shod, or having to submit to severe painful operations. Journal of Agriculture.

In a recent scandal case in Smith country, Kansas, a lady witness declined to answer a question, and the attorney demanded her reason. "Because it is by it is equal to two and a half horses.

man merchandise return to the Basili- committed to memory, so that they may The Scotch Way of Managing Pigs.

Two men are employed constantly in eleaning the pens, and the manure made is of great value. Barley straw is bought for besiding. Fresh straw is laid found to induce a desire in the pigs to rest and sleep. They are no more dis-turbed, except to be fed, for twenty-four ad prosperity.

He came, he said, not to discuss these food," the character of which is not uestions which vex the mind and disstated. This is cooked, and fed cold five one of them is arrested he is provisionally detained, and notice is given to the Halaman's help dot if I didn't want to."

"Well, I'm only giving you my indicatined, and notice is given to the Halaman's my own items or sit on a box and whith the har soap. It's a fact that you were drunk lest night, and what have you to say about it?"

The prisoner wiped his nose in an appealing manner, and his honor continued:

"It's the first time, and I'll let you appear here again I'll translate you and transport you, too, You are big enough to know how to behave yourself."

"Whell, I'm only giving you my indicate the part of the harmony which prevail among the child is nearly always given up to him. A Neapolitan physician states that the country only twenty return, thirty establish themselves abroad, and lifty fall victions to illness, privation and erted treatment. Fifty is, indeed, a heavy mortality.

"Alse ECONOMY.

Mistakes People Make in a Mistirected Propensity for Naving."

"Whoop," exclaimed a Toledo sailor as he was brought out.

"Yes, 'hooped' for sixty days," replied the court, and Bijah went in for another.

Henry Gibson came out with wild ever Henry Gibson came out with wild ever the receipt make of each of corn meal, but an appeal and the following means and material progress. No man, no course of policy no deep designs of an applied the court, and Bijah went in for another.

Henry Gibson came out with wild ever the more drained and notice is given to the Halaman and notice is given to the Halaman and notice is given to the Halaman and the dealed of the case, and material progress. No man, no course of policy no deep designs of an applied to the court, and Bijah went in for another.

Henry Gibson came out with wild ever in the case of th The boars are kept in separate pens. In rotation the sows are turned into them from and after September. The sows at this time are reduced in flesh. When ready to farrow they are turned When ready to harrow the into pens surrounded with a bench ten inches above the floor to protect the pigs the being available and crushed by the Women, says the Saturday Review, women, says the saturday as men should either adopt a uniform as men have done, or else dress-making should commanding officer of a ship-of-war to commanding officer of a ship-of-war to command of the comman, and the commanding officer of a ship-of-war to command the commandation of th be elevated into a position of a fine art, and treated as such. It should be undertaken by people of culture and refinement in the same way that cookery has been. There ought to be a school of art dressmaking. Perhaps a royal princess would patronize it. Certainly, portrait painters would be only too glad to know of a place at which their sitters in figure wearing low dresses at morning drawing-rooms. Their second one ought to be to abolish the use of the word "fashionable" in its present sense, and to substitute for it the word "becommy where it is necessary and magnifi-cence where it is suitable.

Grapes in Our Garden this Season. Drought and intense heat, just pre ing, did some damage, but the crop, as whole, was satisfactory. Hartford Pr lific never belies its name, but bears abundantly and ripens well. It is by no means a grape of high quality, but coming early is not apt to be slighted. It is an excellent market grape, its only fault, Curry, Savage, Hale & Norcross, Eutaw and Occidental.

There were shipped from the Consoli-dated Virginia about 2,000 bars of gold in that capacity, being a liability, when fully ripe, to drop easily from the branch-es. Perkins, a white grape, ripens about the same time, and has the same fault of dropping from the bunches, but for and silver, unseparated, or about $7,000,000, previous to this year. The following, which I copied from the books of the home use this is not a great drawback. It is a better grape than the Hartford, (to our taste) though somewhat foxy; but, so far, in our short experience with it, has proved only a moderate bearer, Concord always proves trustworthy in the way of production, and always selfs well. Our Delaware vines are in an unfavorable place, much shaded by trees, which have grown since they were planted. e this is not a great drawback favorable place, much shaded by trees, which have grown since they were planted, and are not doing well, in consequence. Walter is a most delicious grape, and has never disappointed us as to crop, but the vines are not thrifty, at present. We have not yet examined the roots, but suspect the Phylogera (grapewood-louse.) Senasqua bore this season for the first time, (except, perhaps, one or two bunches last year.) and bore magnificently. It is a hybrid between the Concord and the Black Prince, (foreign) and cord and the Black Prince, (foreign) and the richness of the mines," continued tresembles the former in foliage, while the fruit is like the fleshy foreign varieties. The berries are about the size of the Hartford, black, solid fleshed, and others) would let everybody go down into the mine, if there was a de it? Besides, look about you."

be confessed that, to all appearances, there was boundless presperity. Bars of gold and silver, worth from $3,000 to safely set down the Senasqua as promising, but it, of course, needs a longer gold and silver, worth trial to fully establish its merits. Peter $4,000 each, were stacket communication of motion is given tion—the gold being about 45 per cent.

ADVERTISING RATES.

one square, ten lines, one insertion. . . § 1 70

e haif column one year.

or line for each inser No proof of publication of legal advertice. se nents will be made until our fee is settled. Announcing candidates for state and district dices, $15; and for county offices, $10. harriages and deaths published froe. Our

OUR GOLD AND SILVER CROP.-The gold and silver product of the United States in 1874 was $72,000,000. Of this orado $4,191,000; Montana $2,439,000, and Idaho $1,880,000. We exported nearly the whole of this product abroad to pay for what we imported. We sometimes flatter ourselves that our gold and Jefferson Davis delivered an address at the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful that the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the young successful the Missole use of the Young successful the Agricultural fair, at Desoto, Missole use of the Young successful the With that of some one of the Missole use of the Young successful the With that of some one of the Missole use of the Young successful the With that of some one of the With that of Some one of the With that of Some one of the Young successful the Young successful the Young successful the Young successful the Young success silver product it would be a poor state but for its wheat crop. California's agriculture is a much more prolific and of wealth than its mines.

> Health of Farmers.—The Massi-chusetts Board of Health is out with its fourth annual report, in which is to be found an interesting paper on the lon-gevity of the farmer's life. It says the evidence collected from country physi-cians throughout the state for the last state, is 55 and a fourth years, of citizens. The class most nearly approaching farmers, viz., out-door machanics, live only 52 and a half years on an average.

The almost unanimous belief of those physicians and the complier of the poper is, that farmes might live much longer than they do, by exercising more care in choosing, cooking and eating their food, in avoiding overwork and exposure to in avoiding overwork and exposure to change of weather, and the use of foul drinking water. Their food consists tos, much of pork, pies saleratus bread and cakes. The cookery is bad, and meals are eaten too quickly for good digestion, when work hurries. More vegetables and fruit should be eaten, and more rest taken. More cleanliness as regards out-bourses and more government. houses, and more care to avoid leaving cess-pools, sinks, etc., nearer to a we than thirty feet at least,—Rucel Ne

Women on Government Vessels.

The United States Army and Navy Gazette recently printed a letter protesi ing against the practice in vogue with American naval officers of taking their wives and daughters on board ship for long cruises. The London Army and Navy Gazette reprints the letter, pro-faced as follows: "It was a wise arrange-ment of our forefathers to prohibit any things are very bad with them, poor fel-lows, if they are not marrying men. The American authorities are peculiarly nean, except in the beauty of the non-consists of 108,000 shares, par value $100 each. It sells for $340 to $360 a share, and pays more dividends each year than the original par value of the shares. Of these Flood, Mackay, and O'Brien selling at from $60 to $70. The firm owns 295,000 of these shares, as well as a majority of the Best & Belchel, Gould &